The Sobey Building and the renovated Loyola Academic Complex mark the beginning of an exciting new era of teaching and learning at Saint Mary's University. The facilities rival the best instructional and learning facilities in North America. This highly adaptive structure reflects the Saint Mary's approach to student centred learning – our hallmark since 1802.

The Sobey Building and Loyola Academic Complex represent an $18 million investment in higher education in Nova Scotia.

Saint Mary's University is committed to academic and research excellence, community and international outreach, public accessibility and fiscal responsibility.
