

March 19, 2009

8:30am—12:30pm

NSCC Waterfront campus
80 Mawimoi Place
Dartmouth, NS
Room—Waterfront Theatre
OR
Via videoconference
NSCC Kingstec Campus
Room B246
236 Belcher St.
Kentville, NS

Two Locations!

Who should attend: Leaders from any sector interested in promoting innovation and growth that benefits their organization in today's knowledge based economy.

ACORN
NOVA SCOTIA

CANARIE

Canada's Advanced Network

Le réseau évolué du Canada

Understanding Practical Uses of Advanced Networks

Presented by Nova Scotia Community College in partnership with the Atlantic Canada Organization of Research Networks in Nova Scotia (ACORN-NS) and CANARIE Inc., Canada's Advanced Network Organization

Waterfront Campus Map:

[http://www.nsc.ca/About_NSCC/
Locations/Waterfront/map.asp](http://www.nsc.ca/About_NSCC/Locations/Waterfront/map.asp)

Kingstec Campus Map:

[http://www.nsc.ca/About_NSCC/
Locations/Kingstec/map.asp](http://www.nsc.ca/About_NSCC/Locations/Kingstec/map.asp)

For more information
contact ACORN-NS:
info@acorn-ns.ca

www.acorn-ns.ca
www.nsc.ca
www.canarie.ca

Presenters will describe a variety of opportunities available through Nova Scotia advanced networks and the current applications in use at the Nova Scotia Community College.

The overview of NSCC academic strategies in distance learning showcases a practical use of advanced networks through a video/audio demonstration between the two NSCC campuses.

Registration is free, but space is limited, so please RSVP by March 13, 2009 indicating which site you wish to attend to:

Monika.Drozdzowska@nsc.ca or call Monika at 902.491.2020

nsc